

Parish Church of St Peter and St Paul, Olney

Sunday 26th April

Today - 3rd Sunday of Easter

Rector's letter

So we have now moved into a second phase of, 'stay at home, protect the NHS, save lives'. It is by far one of the most difficult times I have ever lived through.

As I take my almost daily walk around Olney, it is very moving to see the rainbows and artwork (done by so many) displayed in the windows of lots of houses. It is so encouraging to see that people in our community are thinking about others and not only about themselves.

Today's reading from the Gospel of John (Chapter 3 verse 16) led me to think of how every day, especially every Thursday at 8pm, and at all sorts of other times I am moved to think of those who work in the health professions, the emergency services, those who enable us to have food on our plates, water, light and heat in our homes, those who keep our neighbourhoods free from clutter and rubbish, and all those who are daily giving of themselves to care for and provide for us. I truly can see goodness, love and the face of God in their unselfish deeds. I thank God for all those who are generously serving us and I also look forward to when we all will all be once again able to see each other face to face.

Stay safe and God bless! Andrew+

Funerals. George Scott, 4th May. Private funeral.
Ebba Quenby, 14th May. Private funeral.

New life at Easter. We have a message from the Geary's farm this week: The lambing shed and the open fields have probably brought to us the biggest sense of normality that anything ever could have done in a time of national crisis. We've witnessed from a distance the hardships and difficulties of our friends, but as farmers we feel very blessed that we can work at home and stay safe. We've delivered in excess of 750 lambs over the last five weeks. The weather has been kind and the sheep and lambs are thriving and beginning to bloom after a long, wet and difficult winter. As we come towards the end of lambing, just over 50 left now, the cows are starting to calve and we've some lovely calves by Magnum, our new stock bull. New life all around us, so reflective of the Easter message and the hope offered in the resurrection.

A tribute to Gladys Johnson

Last week we learnt that Gladys Johnson (nee Smith) had passed away and as she was so well known in the town, it is only fitting to include a little tribute to her here. When she married, she lived near me in the farmhouse in Near Town with her husband Sidney and they had a daughter Elizabeth. Gladys sang in Olney Choir and worked in the Post Office for many years. In her later years she could be seen riding her bike around the town. Berenice and Arnold Mann recall how wonderfully kind and helpful she was to the residents of Clifton Court, listening to them, sharing their news and often fetching them fish and chips as a treat. Arnold would take Gladys to the Wolverton Grammar School reunions, where they both went to school. She was a well-liked and friendly lady and will be missed. Susan

News from Pastures Farm

Talking to Tony and Viv Evans this week I discovered it was Tony's 80th birthday on the 15th April. How lucky it was the family had decided to celebrate Tony entering his 80th year on New Year's Day with family and friends, as who would believe that we would now be in lockdown. Viv had planned another family get together over Easter, but instead enjoyed some wonderful calls and Facetime with the family. On Tony's birthday morning, he was surprised to see the children from the farmhouse had made banners, decorated the cars and put up balloons whilst he was sleeping. Two special friends bravely walked up to the farm via Killick Wood and enjoyed a breakfast celebration sitting outside at an appropriate distance and there was birthday cake (at a distance) later in the day with James & Emma, Toby, Lottie and Jack. As Viv says "No regrets and thank you for all the many good wishes".

Tony and Viv also reminded me that Pastures Poultry Farm Shop is still open (Wednesday- Saturday 9-5pm) with plenty of free parking places so you can shop safely. They also offer a free home delivery service to those who cannot get out – email james@pasturespoultry.co.uk or call 01604 696596 for a product list. You can then place your order and pay over the phone. They offer fresh bread, milk, fruit and veg, their own poultry, other locally sourced meats and a wide section of homemade goods, puddings, ready meals and jams.

Hymns from Richard Heyes and Susan Bailey

Don't forget you can skip the adverts at the start of the video links to this week's hymns.

Ye Servants of God

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
and publish abroad his wonderful name;
the name all-victorious of Jesus extol,
His kingdom is glorious and rules over all.

"Salvation to God, who sits on the throne!"
Let all cry aloud and honour the Son;
the praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore him and give him his right,
all glory and power, all wisdom and might;
all honour and blessing with angels above,
and thanks never-ceasing and infinite love.

Christ is the King! O friends, rejoice

Christ is the King! O friends, rejoice;
brothers and sisters with one voice let the world know he is your choice.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Oh magnify the Lord, and raise anthems of joy and holy praise for Christ's brave saints of ancient days.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

They with a faith forever new followed the King, and round him drew thousands of faithful servants true.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

O Christian women, Christian men, all the world over, seek again
the way disciples followed then.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Christ through all ages is the same:
place the same hope in his great name,
with the same faith his word proclaim.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Let love's unconquerable might your scattered companies unite in service to the Lord of light.
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!
